With over nine years of hands-on experience in strategic sourcing and procurement, including my current role at Advanced Vision Morocco, I possess the skills and expertise required to drive efficiency and cost savings for your organization.

In my current position as Senior Procurement Manager at Advanced Vision Morocco, I successfully manage a $2 million procurement budget and lead a dynamic team in overseeing vendor relationships and procurement operations across multiple large-scale projects. My efforts in sourcing cost-effective alternatives also resulted in savings of up to 24% on essential equipment for our projects. Additionally, I spearheaded the implementation of a procurement software solution that improved productivity by 12%, showcasing my commitment to leveraging technology for enhanced operational efficiency.
